

Rainier Eagles Salmon Derby

The Rainier Eagles hosted their 10th Annual Salmon Derby on Saturday, September 1st. With two categories for interested participants to enter, Individual or Corporate, the contest aimed to raise money for local charities including Community Food Banks, School Back Pack Programs and Fireman's Toy and Joy. Entry tickets were available at local businesses Rainier RV, Rainier True Value, Bob's Sporting and Rainier Eagles.

The event concluded at 5:00 pm with the final weigh-in; a dinner followed. Mark Kuhn hosted a live auction during the evening and Mr. X provided live music. The derby winner was announced at the evening dinner. Sponsors of this year's event included Sigler's Marine, Columbia Ford and Chinook Sales. The individual first prize was $500.00 and monetary prizes were also awarded through fifth place. Corporate/team prizes were provided as well: a custom metal sculpture by Alan Boyce, a four person charter donated by Tiki Charters, and four rods and reels donated by Bob's Sporting Goods.
