

Back into Your Wedding Dress – End of Summer Prom

Andrew Demko, CCCC Board Member

On Saturday, September 28th, The Olde School Company, located at 251 St. Helens Street, in St. Helens hosted the “Get Back into Your Wedding Dress – End of Summer Prom!” From 7:00 pm until 11:00 pm, individuals and couples were encouraged to come out for an evening of fun and dancing, with music provided by Music Unlimited. For $25 per person, or $45 per couple, when paid in advance, guests were invited to enjoy cocktails as well as an unlimited dessert bar, prepared by local chefs, along with their evening of fun and dancing.

The evening’s proceeds were donated to the Columbia Pacific Food Bank and Community Meals, and many local businesses came together to co-sponsor the event. These businesses included Belleza Day Spa, Bemis Printing, Body, Mind and Face, Char’s Third Avenue Salon, Columbia City Sports & Rec Club, Curves of St. Helens, Dianna’s Formal Affair, Flowers 4U, Jilly’s, Kevin Iverson State Farm Insurance, Nails by Tripsy Brown, Northwest Structural Moving, Scandalous Hair Design, Shear Perfection and Sommers Financial Management. For those who did not have an old wedding dress to don for the evening, they were encouraged to put on their favorite, or least favorite prom dress and join in the fun and festivities.

For more information on this year’s event, interested parties can visit the South Columbia County Chamber of Commerce webpage at <http://www.sccchamber.org/CommEvents?eventId=761670&EventViewMode=EventDetails> or the Back into Your Wedding Dress – End of Summer Prom Facebook Page at <https://www.facebook.com/events/403125776455743/>